PREPARATION

1. Mix the oats, plant milk, chia seeds and cinnamon in a container.
2. Stir well, cover, and refrigerate overnight (at least 4 h).
3. In the morning, top with sliced banana, blueberries and chopped almonds.
4. Finish with a drizzle of peanut butter (warm it slightly so it's easier to drizzle).

NUTRITION NOTE

The oats and fruit add carbs for energy, while almonds and peanut butter bring healthy fats and extra protein to keep you fuller for longer — a solid pre-workout breakfast to fuel the session ahead.
